

SPELL-CHECKING ASSIGNMENTS

When to use it

- You have “finished” your work.
- The spell-checker has missed some words.

How to do it

Just use one of these at a time.
Find the one that works for you.

1. Change the vowels...

...then the consonants.

2. Use an on-line dictionary to check meanings of “sound alike” words.

3. Use “find” function to find commonly confused “sound alike” words.

4. Use “text to speech” software to listen to the possibilities.
